Exotic Adventure

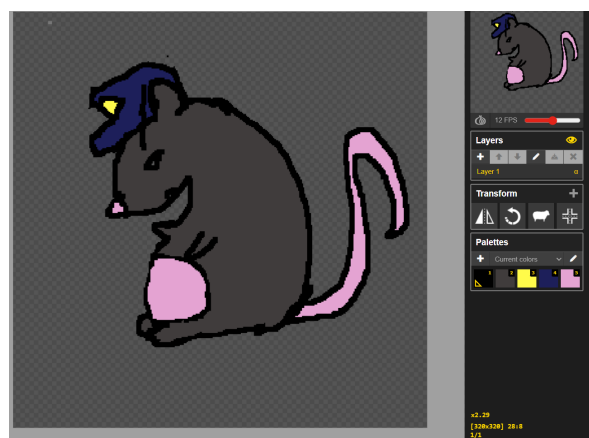

You start in a creepy asylum where you were trapped. To escape you have passed many levels of security. In the first level you break out of your cell and it's dark outside you must sneak past the guards to continue, but if you get caught you have to restart back at your cell, when you pass the next level your cell alarm goes off and the guards know you've escaped and are not hidden anymore. In the next level the floor falls apart and you have to jump across one the floors stands if you fall in the lava you burn. Once you pass that level you make it to level 3 where you get lost and have to complete a maze by finding the key and the exit. And then you move to level 4 the cafeteria where the angry lunch ladies throw poison cheese at you. Be careful not to touch them. You finally made it to the last level where you must fight BIGGIE cheese(catch the reference), this big scary rat everyone is afraid of so they released him to execute you. Once you escape you run away in the runs and the END.
