

Character Development

Agnes Evans- Born and raised as normal as they come, her life was perfect, the perfect parents, the perfect friends, the perfect boyfriend, the perfect life. The perfect life, all except one thing, her geeky little sister Tilly, wishing she didn't have such a nerdy sister, Agnes has to learn that the not so perfect and not so normal can still be beautiful and fun.

Tilly Evans- From the day she was born Tilly was like no other, she was unique in every aspect of her life, she was a total nerd who loved DnD, she would surround herself with friends who not only loved her uniqueness, but practically worshiped her for it, until one fateful day... That day the gods decided that Tilly would have to adventure somewhere else somewhere very few choose to go.

Lilith Morningstar- Class: Demon Queen. She acts as the squad's muscle. Whenever you're surrounded by an armada of Ogres, she's the one you want holding the steel.

Kaliop Darkwalker- Class: Dark Elf. Along with her natural elvin agility, athleticism, and ass-kicking ability, she's also a master tacker, lock-picker, and has more than a few magical surprises up her non-existent sleeves.

Orcus, Overlord of the Underworld- The scariest demon of them all, watcher of souls and spirits, keeper of magical artifacts, a force to truly fear.

DM (Chuck) Biggs- A DM who's biggest asset is his brain, a true game wizard and ladies man, but stay back ladies he has a girlfriend...from New York.

Miles, The Boyfriend- Miles may not be all there in the head, but he definitely makes up for it by having a big heart, he'll do anything to keep Agnes happy, he'll even tolerate Vera.

Vera, The best friend- Agnes' best friend, she doesn't like to do...well anything, and she especially hates Miles, but she puts up with him for Agnes' sake.

Art

She Kills Monsters The Game